

Additional Agreement to the Partnership Agreement about usage of the "Spread rebate for partner's clients" service.

1. This provision is an additional agreement between the Grand Capital Ltd. (further "the Company"), and the owner of the IB account (further "the Partner") that connects to the service "Spread rebate for partner's clients". The Agreement has the rights of the formal offer and must be studied by the Partner.
2. To connect to the service "Spread rebate for partner's clients" the Partner must use a special section in your 'private office' of the Company.
3. When connecting to the service "Spread rebate for partner's clients", the Partner confirms:
 - a) The validity of withdrawal of the refund amount from the Partner's account specified upon confirmation, ranging from $1 to $ 10 for one standard lot.
 - b) The refund amount is deducted automatically from the Partner's account after each of his clients' completed transaction.
 - c) In the absence of funds in the Partner's account, the amount is accrued into negative balance and counts towards the calculation of the Partner's compensation.
 - d) Deducted funds are automatically credited to the accounts of the Partner's clients.
4. Cancellation of the "Spread rebate for partner's clients" service can be done by the Partner in the 'private office' of the Company.
5. All disputes between parties are decided upon the terms and conditions of present Additional Agreement and the Partnership Agreement, accepted by the Partner when opening an IB account.
